Frahnce-Germany: [The Germans have set forth for the French specific points they want incorporated in an agreement covering French forces in Germany.]

[The Germans described the atmosphere at a meeting of the French-German negotiators on 15 July--at which they outlined their requirements--as "not bad." However, they said the French were "impressed" by the extent of the specific measures which the Germans want in any new agreement or declaration and "had not hidden their unhappiness" at certain proposals. These would give the Germans the right to inspect French facilities, to expel persons deemed undesirable by the West German Government, and to require Paris to consult with Bonn before appointing senior French commanders in Germany. The French agreed to consider the German proposals and to meet again on 3 August.]

[The Germans do not plan to pursue these bilateral issues with President de Gaulle during his 21-22 July visit but think the French may raise them.]

NOTES

Indonesia: Sukarno apparently is continuing his last-ditch efforts to block formation of a cabinet which he could not control. When General Suharto presented a cabinet slate to the President on 17 July, Sukarno reportedly merely said that he and Suharto would "work hard" to form a cabinet by the 17 August deadline set earlier this month by the Provisional Congress. Suharto, who seems in a strong enough position to get most of what he wants, seeks a cabinet composed primarily of technicians rather than politicians who might be responsive to Sukarno's pressures.

France-Cuba: France may be ready to grant a large credit guarantee for the sale of tractors and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. A French Foreign Ministry official said on 12 July that the credit guarantee would be about $16 million, although other sources indicate it may go well above that figure. If the deal goes through it will be one of the Castro regime's largest transactions with the French.
